SUMMARY.

It is reported from Petrograd that the Bolsheviks have been overthrown, and that the Grand Duke Nikolai Nikolavich has been appointed Emperor.

There is a persistent rumor at Helsinki of the ex-Czar's murder at Helsinki, and that the Czar's body has been taken from the city to the Gulf of Finland.

The reason is unknown, but Finland is watching these movements with anxiety.

Advises from Helsinki state that the situation in Russia is desperate.

The Red Guards in Petrograd are already bringing upon the population for the slightest reason.

The new Siberian Government refuses to provide Russia with grain while Lenin remains in power.

The people can only cry for bread.

Kerensky's dramatic appearance in London received interest in the situation in Russia.

Opinion in favour of the Kerensky is steadily growing in Russia.

The immediate effect of Kerensky's visit has been in deepening Britain's sympathy with Russia.

Pandemonium reigned in the Labour conference in London when the foreign delegates, including Kerensky, were introduced.

Delegates questioned Kerensky's credentials. Order was eventually restored, and the chairman welcomed the visitors.

Mr. Arthur Henderson, M.P., appealed for a cordial reception of Kerensky.

The conference agreed to hear Kerensky, with a few exceptions, and great cheering followed.

The delegates greeted Kerensky by singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," followed by cheers.

The Italian captured 200 prisoners during the operation of extending the bridgehead at Capo Bilo.

President Wilson, congratulating General Diaz, says: "The whole spirit of America is in the hands of the Italian people."

An American official message says the bitter struggle of the 24th has ended in a complete Italian victory.

German reinforcements from France for Austria have arrived on the Italian front in the mountains region.

Washington has received advice confirming the reports regarding the critical conditions in Vienna.

This midsummer cold wave is regarded as an economic catastrophe.

Mr. Douglas Haig reports that the British gained possession of a hostile strong point westward of Vieste Veneta, a strategic point between the Adriatic and the Alps.

A French communiqué reports fairly lively activity in the south of the Alps, in the region of Courmayeur.

Narvon was Kuhlmann's speech as the result of an upheaval throughout Germany. The Kaiser has been furious.

Lord Balfour's intervention in the debate in the Reichstag was due to a furious telegram from the Emperor.

The German newspapers state Kuhlmann as "Germany's greatest defeatist." His resignation is expected.

Mr. Thane (Independent Socialist), in the Reichstag, said the military party was supreme.

The men really riling Germany, he added, were the "Lords." "Why not make him Chancellor?" he remarked.

Mr. Hughes made an important speech at a luncheon tendered in his honour by the London Chamber of Commerce.

He spoke of trade rivalry after the war, and urged Britain to organize for the time when peace came.

The steamer Wimmera, bound from Australia to Sydney, was sunk through striking a mine.

The New Zealand coast guard on Wednesday morning.

Holmes and Parker, and Co., have been notified that so far passengers and 44 of the crew have been rescued.

Survivors of those on board are still to be accounted for.

Mr. Hughes was celebrated yesterday with a banquet. There were picturesque scenes in Sydney.

Martin-place and Moore-street were a blaze of colour, and thousands thronged the thoroughfares.

The Governor officially opened "The Day" at Martin-place. The troops, which had been sent to the city to maintain order, were also present.

The Roman procession was a striking pageant of dancing and music, and the city was a scene of festivity.

The Feast of Corpus Christi in the Town Hall proved a brilliant function.

The Council-General for Italy, in opening the festival, expressed his admiration for what Australian women were doing.

The amount collected in the city and a few of the suburbs was £200.

It is officially estimated that the total for the Italian Red Cross fund will reach £100,000.

Mr. Justice Higgins has refused to grant preference to the waterworks.

The Sheep Show was officially opened by the Governor yesterday. Mr. R. Hordern presided at the ceremony.

The importance of the wool-growing industry formed the principal theme of the speeches.

Mr. Graham said that only three years ago the average value of a sheep was £20.

The grand champion prize for the best sheep was awarded to a ram from the Wimmera.

The champion prize for the best unknown ram was awarded by Mr. P. C. Smith with the champion of the sheep.

The sheep trial for sheep dogs commenced yesterday. The best work was performed by a dog named "The Great Dog."

An auction sale of imported stock held at the Showground yesterday realized £2500.

Bidding was keen.

The highest price was obtained for a pair of Shorthorn bull from a New Zealand man, who sold to a Cumbrian buyer for £200 guineas.

Two country rump mares will start on Tuesday next, each with about 500 men from Liverpool camp.

One of the mares will be from Albany, and the other from Murrumbidgee.

The first of the Art Gallery are satisfied that the objects of the loan exhibition of Australian art have been achieved.

Many works have been loaned at high value, and the public interest has been maintained.

Mr. W. J. Baker.

"The House of Baker," 3 Hunter-st., Sydney.

TO-MORROW'S PAPERS WILL CONTAIN AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF MOST PARTICULAR INTEREST TO ALL MEN.

BE SURE YOU SEE THIS, AND READ IT WELL, FOR IT WILL BE YOUR MATERIAL INTEREST.

"AUSTRALIAN" KAG SUE OF AUSTRALIAN TOWERS.

Men eagerly need to be told of the qualities which make a good Australian. The qualities which make a good Australian are: a good character, a good physique, a good education, and a good sense of duty.

The Commonwealth Prices Commissioner has an inquiry yesterday into the price of milk.

The evidence for the most part showed that the price of milk had not risen.

The President of the Chamber of Commerce has interviewed the Postmaster-General regarding the telegraph.

Mr. Webster explained that 400 employees and others had been transferred to the telegraph.

He hoped the commercial community would sympathize with the telegraph, and help the telegraph.

The expenditure on motor cars for the telegraph department of defence amounts to £1000 a year.

A branch of the National Union Breaders' Association has been formed by the poultry breeders in the Sydney district.

Persons—cloudy and unsettled, with showers in the extreme south-west and south of the Sydney district, and a few showers in the north-west.

RUSSIA.

OVERTHROW OF BOLSHIEVICS.

A NEW CZAR.

UNCONFIRMED REPORT.

The Petrograd correspondent of the "Telegraph" says it is reported that the Bolsheviks have been overthrown and that Nikolai Nikolaevich, the Grand Duke Nicholas, has been appointed Emperor.

The Grand Duke Nicholas was one of the leading figures in Russia prior to the revolution. He was Commander-in-Chief of the Russian army during the war, and was widely respected for his military and administrative abilities. His appointment as Emperor would mark a significant change in the Russian government.

SITUATION DESPERATE.

Reports from Helsinki state that the situation in Russia is desperate. The overthrow of the Bolshevik regime is expected soon, accompanied by bloody street fighting. The Red Guards are reported to be firing upon the population on the slightest excuse.

The new Siberian Government refuses to receive Russian refugees, and is demanding daily. The people can only cry for bread.

Thousands of Russians are fleeing from the Finnish Gulf. The reason is unknown, but Finland is watching these movements with anxiety.

The Stockholm correspondent of the United Press Agency telegraphs that the Bolsheviks are sending Red Guards to villages forcibly to seize bread from the peasants. Battles are raging in the Olenyok, Viena, Kurak, Kishinev, Krasnodar, and other districts.

Hundreds of peasants and Red Guards have been killed. Baltic sailors in Petrograd revolted, and demanded the abolition of the Bolshevik regime.

Workers exploded munitions and powder stores in Odessa and Bander to prevent their seizure by the Germans. Many were killed.

M. Dostoevich, a famous Russian writer, has been killed. He was a member of the "World" from Muransk, in Russia, says the "Pines and Germans are steadily advancing on Russian territory towards the Muransk railroad.

From Kozlovka, and from Kozlovka, via the Yen River, German forces are now approaching in the direction of the White Sea.

The capture of the White Sea and the peasants in Northern Russia realize that they can only be saved from German enslavement by Allied help. It is not keeping the "Lithuanian" Treaty, took part in operations both in the Ukraine and Finland.

The present endeavour of the Germans is to cut off communication between Petrograd and its Arctic port.

AMERICA'S ATTITUDE.

The "New York Times" Washington correspondent says that America is planning to assist Russia without delay, but such assistance will not be of a military character.

It will aim to give the Russian people and agricultural life in building up Russia. The Government will consult the Allies and ask them to assist in restoring the economic position of Russia.

Mr. de la Roche, Paris, has reached Paris that the Canadian and General Alexiev, has captured Krasnodar.

In the House of Commons Lord Robert Cecil stated that discussions were constantly in progress between Britain and the United States regarding joint intervention in the Far East.

JAPAN AND SIBERIA.

The Stockholm correspondent of the United Press Agency telegraphs that the Japanese are not in the conference. It is learned that their purpose is to bring Chinese and Japanese aid in the war against the Germans in Siberia.

Japan is expected to have a similar role in the expedition of Siberia.

THE EX-CZAR.

A Holingsworth says there is a persistent rumour of the ex-Czar's murder at Ekaterinburg; also that the Czar's wife has died of illness.

KUHLMANN'S SPEECH.

PAN-GERMANS FURIOUS.

An Amsterdam message says it is reported that the Chancellor's intervention in the Baltic states, were due to the Emperor's serious telegram complaining of Kuhlmann's speech. The pan-German newspapers, style Kuhlmann as "Germany's greatest traitor."

His early resignation is expected.

An Amsterdam report says the Independent Socialist movement, Herr Haase, speaking in the Reichstag, said that the military party was supreme. The man really ruling Germany was Ludendorff. Why not make him Chancellor?

Kuhlmann had stated that mutual confidence in honesty and chivalry was a necessary preliminary of peace negotiations. Could the Government expect such confidence?

There was no paragraph in the first-Holmskirk Treaty which the Government had not broken or was prepared to violate. Haase bitterly complained that the Government had sold America would never enter the fight, yet now the United States had 700,000 soldiers in France.

IRISH PROBLEM.

DEBATE BY LORDS.

The House of Lords resumed the debate on the Irish question. Lord Bryce said he did not propose to deal with the Government's policy of pacification, but if the Government had taken its courage in both hands and brought in a bill embodying the recommendations of the Irish Convention's majority report, it would have been a great step forward.

Water would have been evolved. The present state of affairs rendered further legislation necessary. It would mean a general election, a general scheme of federalism was ready. It would mean a day of generations. Ireland could not wait too long. The Government proposed to Federalize the United Kingdom.

Lord Curzon said the Government must know that the Roman Catholic Church would oppose the conscription proposal, and therefore it would inevitably lead to disaster.

THE ITALIANS.

MORE PRISONERS TAKEN.

LONDON, June 27.

An Italian official message on Thursday stated: We captured 500 prisoners on the occasion of the capture of the bridgehead at Capo Tene on Tuesday.

ENEMY CLAIMS.

(Admiralty per Wireless Press.)

An Austrian official message claims that the Italians unsuccessfully attempted to capture Colico, and that some Italian boats were endeavouring to cross in boats near Ponte di Piave were destroyed.

AMERICA'S CONGRATULATION.

President Wilson, in a message of congratulation to General Diaz, says: "The whole spirit of America rejoices in the Italian achievement. It feels that a great blow has been struck for the liberties, not only of Italy, but of the world."

WESTERN FRONT.

MINOR SUCCESSES.

Sir Douglas Haig reporting on Thursday night stated: We brought down seven German machines and captured two more. The revolutionary army of the West is being followed by the crop of the day. In December, the British captured the German line. The Grand Duke Michael was to be reported, with the Russian army, and the British army. The Russian army was to be reported, with the British army. The Russian army was to be reported, with the British army.

Improved weather enabled more photographic and artillery observation than for some time. Day-bombing dropped 141 tons of bombs on railway stations, dumps, transport, and billets; also on bridges and roads. Night-bombing dropped 100 tons of bombs on the same targets. The British army was to be reported, with the Russian army. The Russian army was to be reported, with the British army.

A French communiqué issued on Thursday afternoon stated: There has been lively artillery fire south of the Aisne in the region of Coucyville. We carried out three raids in the Vosges and took some prisoners.

It is reported from Washington that the American army at Helms Wood resulted in the capture of 211 prisoners and 11 machine guns.

LABOUR CONFERENCE.

WORKERS OF FRANCE DETERMINED.

LONDON, June 27.

Pandemonium reigned at the Labour conference at Helms Wood, when the delegates, including Kerensky, were introduced. The delegates questioning Kerensky's credentials. Eventually order was restored. The chairman (Mr. Purdy) welcomed the delegates.

M. Jacques Renaudie said the workers of France were determined to carry on the war until the Germans were turned out of France and Belgium returned.

M. Albert Thomas (France) drew attention to the need for a military victory, interpreting the words of Kerensky's speech, interpreting the words of Kerensky's speech, interpreting the words of Kerensky's speech.

M. Vandervelde (Belgium) said he had received a message from Belgium Socialists in the occupied territories who were prepared to participate in the conference on condition that they were not to be treated as prisoners of war.

M. Branting (Sweden) said he came to England to advocate an international conference. The reconstruction of the international might have averted the terrible losses and suffering which had occurred since last summer.

He believed it was still possible to find among the Socialists in the Central Empires some who would repudiate the Prussian "Treaty of Brest-Litovsk."

LATE WAR NEWS.

THE RUSSIANS.

MOSCOW REPORTED CAPTURED.

BOLSHIEVICS' DOWNFALL.

VANCOUVER, June 28.

A London message published in Vancouver says: It is reported the Bolshevik Government in Moscow has been overthrown.

General Korotkiy is reported to have captured Moscow.

WESTERN FRONT.

LONDON, June 28.

Sir Douglas Haig, in his noon report of Friday, says: Patrol encounters were made at night in the neighbourhood of Nogel. We inflicted casualties on the enemy.

An American official message says: We repulsed raiding parties in the Vosges.

ENEMY CLAIMS.

(Admiralty per Wireless Press.)

A German official message says: There was lively enemy activity northward of the Scarpe and the Somme, westward of Soissons, and northward of Reims. The enemy was reported to have been seen on the Reims (cathedral). We repulsed a strong enemy attack northward of St. Mihiel. We shot down five enemy aeroplanes. We shot down two days while raiding Karlsruhe and Offenburg industrial region and Lorraine. Our bombing squadrons on the 26th attacked Paris and railway junctions and aerodromes on route.

KERENSKY'S APPEAL.

Kerensky, speaking at the Labour conference at Westminster, said: Russia, bending under the morose of the Russian Revolution, is still opposing the German invasion, and will never recognize the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, which has buried Russia into the abyss of annihilation.

The Russian Revolution is still opposing the German invasion, and will never recognize the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, which has buried Russia into the abyss of annihilation.
